

OAHU MATCH RACING CLINIC

Friday evening, January 9 - Sunday, January 11

Intro to Match Racing

As part of a world wide promotion of match racing, North U is organizing a series of match racing clinics. This domestic series will run parallel to WIMRA's (WIMRA.org) world wide schedule of clinics. In 2007 clinics were held in Argentina, Brazil, New Zealand, Slovenia, St. Maarten and Tortola, as well as New York.

Racing at the New York Clinic

Why Match Racing?

You'll learn all about dial-ups, circling, lead/push, the hook, shift left, and a slew of other match racing tactics and techniques. When you try it you will find Match Racing to be a captivating form of sailboat racing - fully engaging, relentlessly exciting, and great fun. Not only that, but it will improve your fleet racing skills. But really, the reason to match race is the fun.

Curriculum

The Match Racing Clinic Curriculum was created by Dave Perry and Liz Baylis with assistance from North U. The course combines shoreside sessions with on the water drills and races.

The clinic is targeted to racing sailors. Prior match racing experience is not required. This clinic will use Cal 20's. The clinic will be non-spinnaker. Enrollment is limited.

Registration & Information

The Registration Fee is $295. The fee includes the full course, course materials, use of the boats, borrowed boat insurance and breakfast and lunch each day.
